About Lisa:

By day, I teach virtual ASL at a secondary level with Pasco County School District. By night, I teach Deaf Culture/ASL at a local college and I also volunteer my time actively involved in several organizations including NAD that I'm passionate about. I love Politics and majored in Government at Gallaudet University, where I also earned my teaching credential and Master of Arts in Deaf Education degree.

Fun facts about Lisa:

- I love the Baltimore Ravens.
- I enjoy reading YR, Politics, and Harlan Coben books.
- I have an avid interest in sampling different ground coffee from different places.
- I enjoy meeting interesting and passionate people from all walks of life!
